STATE FARM FIRE AND CASUALTY COMPANY'S RESPONSE TO
RELATORS' MOTION TO STAY PROCEEDINGS
PENDING A RULING ON DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISQUALIFY

Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff State Farm Fire and Casualty Company, improperly denominated in the First Amended Complaint as "State Farm Mutual Insurance Company" ("State Farm" or "Defendant"), subject to all its defenses, including its Rule 9 & 12 defenses, submits this Response to Relators' Motion to Stay Proceedings Pending a Ruling on Defendant's Motion to Disqualify. State Farm would show:

1. In an April 4, 2008 "Order of Disqualification and for the Exclusion of Evidence" in Thomas C. McIntosh and Pamela McIntosh v. State Farm Fire and Casualty Company, et. al.; in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi, Southern Division; Civil Action No. 1:06cv01080-LTS-RHW, docket nos. 1173, the Court ordered in part that:

That the second motion [966] of State Farm Fire and Casualty Company and the motion [978] of E. A. Renfroe & Company, Inc., to disqualify the members of the Scruggs Katrina Group joint venture who are current counsel of record in this action, the Barrett Law Office, P.A.; Nutt & McAlister, P.L.L.C.; and the Lovelace Law Firm, P.A. , and to disqualify the associated firm of Hesse & Butterworth, P.L.L.C., (and other attorneys associated as counsel for the plaintiffs by these firms) are hereby GRANTED;

That these firms and any other associated counsel are hereby DISQUALIFIED from representing these plaintiffs or any other individuals who have claims against State Farm Fire and Casualty Company and against E. A. Renfroe & Company, Inc., for property damage sustained in Hurricane Katrina in this case and in any other cases in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi;

2. Anthony L. Dewitt, Edward D. “Chip” Robertson, Jr., Mary Doerhoff Winter, Bartimus, Frickleton, Robertson & Gorny, P.C., Todd Graves, Bartle, Marcus & Graves, P.C. and Graves, Bartle & Marcus, LLC (the “Rigsbys’ Counsel”) are “other associated counsel” as that term is used by the Court in the Order quoted in the preceding paragraph. As a result, the Rigsbys’ counsel have already been disqualified as counsel in this Action.<sup>2</sup>

3. State Farm agrees that disqualification is a threshold issue; however, subject matter jurisdiction is a more important threshold issue. Indeed, the approach suggested here by

State Farm Fire and Casualty Company, Forensic Analysis & Engineering Corp., E.A. Renfroe & Company, Inc. and David Stanovich*; in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi, Southern Division; Civil Action No. 1:06cv01080-LTS-RHW, docket no. 1172, ex. B to Resp.)

<sup>2</sup> Due to the Government having declined to intervene, this Action is essentially a suit concerning “property damage sustained in Hurricane Katrina[,]” as envisioned by this Court’s McIntosh Order. (04/08/08 Order in McIntosh, no. 1:06cv01080-LTS-RHW, docket no. 1173, ex. A to Resp.) In the alternative, should State Farm be mistaken in its understanding of the Order, State Farm respectfully submits that the same considerations present in McIntosh also justify entry of a disqualification order here. State Farm has filed a motion to disqualify (docket no. 103) herein, not only to preserve in the record its position that the Rigsbys’ Counsel are already disqualified on the basis of this Court’s April 4, 2008 Order in McIntosh, but also to assert the additional disqualification bases set forth in the motion – which State Farm believes provide further compelling justifications for disqualification in this Action.

the Rigsbys has been consistently rejected by the courts, as it is well established that subject matter jurisdiction must be addressed before issues concerning attorney disqualification.

4. This Court's decision in McIntosh is dispositive of the disqualification issue. Both the Rigsbys and their current counsel are already disqualified from proceeding.<sup>3</sup> Were the Rigsbys' counsel prepared to obey this Court's Order and withdraw immediately, their request for a temporary stay of proceedings might have some merit. Yet the Rigsbys and their counsel should not be able to use their resistance to this Court's clear mandate as a means to obtain an indefinite extension of time for the Rigsbys to respond to the threshold jurisdictional issues.

5. State Farm respectfully submits that this Court should proceed to consideration of both its motion to dismiss for lack of jurisdiction [91] and its motion to disqualify [103]. As State Farm's subject matter jurisdiction motion – if granted – would leave State Farm's counterclaim and the Rigsbys' Count V 31 U.S.C. § 3730(h) retaliation personal claim pending for independent adjudication, this Court may address both the subject matter jurisdiction motion and disqualification motion in tandem.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, for this reason, while State Farm does not oppose a temporary stay of the other pending motions, State Farm must oppose the Rigsbys' request for a stay of the motion to dismiss for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

<sup>3</sup> State Farm takes strong issue with a number of statements in the Rigsbys' motion; especially the misrepresentation that "State Farm's disqualification motion is based upon the misguided premise that GBM and BFRG are vicariously responsible and can be disqualified for acts about which they had no or incomplete knowledge, and did not in any way direct" ([121] at ¶5) – which both mischaracterizes State Farm's position and misstates the facts of the Rigsbys' Counsel's unlawful conduct. State Farm further rejects the contention that "some uncertainty exists as to whether GBM and BFRG will continue to represent Relators going forward." (Id. at ¶8.) In light of this Court's Order, no "uncertainty" exists over the prohibition of the Rigsbys' Counsel's continued representation of the Rigsbys in this Action. Finally, the Rigsbys' contention that "[s]taying these proceedings pending a ruling on the Motion to Disqualify will cause no prejudice to Defendants[.]" (id. at ¶10), is simply incorrect. Delaying decision on State Farm's dispositive motions merely postpones resolution of important issues, including the issue of subject matter jurisdiction and therefore deprives State Farm of an expeditious end to this vexatious litigation by the Rigsbys.

To be clear, nothing in this Response is intended to suggest that State Farm believes the Rigsbys' Counsel have the right to make any filings of any type in this Action. State Farm believes that this Court's April 8, 2008 Order in McIntosh requires the immediate and unconditional withdrawal of the Rigsbys' Counsel, as well as the voluntary dismissal of the Rigsbys' claims, as they no longer have any putative standing to serve as Relators or to request or oppose any relief herein.

This the 10th day of April, 2008.

Respectfully submitted,

STATE FARM FIRE AND CASUALTY COMPANY
