

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CRIMINAL NO. 3:08CR014

ROBERT L. MOULTRIE, ET AL.

GOVERNMENT'S MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO RESPOND TO DEFENDANTS' MOTIONS TO EXCLUDE EXPERT TESTIMONY

Comes now the United States of America, by and through the United States Attorney for the Northern District of Mississippi, and files this motion requesting an extension of time in which to respond to the defendants' motion to exclude the government's proposed expert testimony in the above reference cause. In support thereof, the United States would show unto the Court the following.

1. That all defendants in the cause have filed motions to exclude the proposed expert testimony of Sean Carothers, E.J. Janik, Dennis Dickenson, Ralph Germany and William Purdy. Hearings on those motions are currently scheduled on August 13- August 15, 2008, in Oxford, Mississippi.

2. That the government sent the respective motions to each expert for their responses to each of the defendants's challenges to their technical, scientific and methodological applications.

3. That Mr. Carothers is in the Federal Prison Camp, Pensacola, Florida. Mr. Janik is in Dallas, Texas. And Mr. Dickenson is in Atlanta, Georgia.

4. That the government has not yet received their responses and as a result cannot respond to the defendants' motions.

5. That the undersigned has contacted counsel for the defendants about this extension and have been informed that they have no objection to this request unless it would affect the dates on which the motions hearing or trial is scheduled.

6. That undersigned counsel does not believe that a 10 day extension to respond to the motions would affect the dates of the currently scheduling hearing or trial.

For the above reasons, the United States respectfully requests a ten (10) extension of time in which to respond to the motions to exclude.

Respectfully submitted
