GOVERNMENT'S SUPPLEMENTAL MEMORANDUM TO GOVERNMENT'S MOTION TO REVOKE BOND

NOW INTO COURT comes the United States of America, appearing herein by and through the undersigned Assistant United States Attorney, and respectfully files this Supplemental Memorandum to the Government's Motion to Revoke Bond.

On October 17, 2008, the Government filed a Motion to Revoke Bond because defendant James Perdigao (Perdigao) was arrested by members of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on October 15, 2008, for Computer Fraud. See Government's Motion to Revoke Bond (Exhibit A). The charge of computer fraud alleges that the defendant repeatedly hacked into the computer network of the law firm of Adams & Reese. In addition, the government alleged that the defendant failed to notify the Court, U. S. Attorney, and Pretrial Services of his change of address. Both of these clear violations of the terms of defendant's pretrial release and conditions of his bond require that Court to revoke Perdigao's bond.

Recently, the FBI learned that the defendant has been deceiving this Court and the entire criminal justice system. On February 27, 2008, defendant Perdigao was arrested by members of the St. Tammany Parish Sheriff's Office for shoplifting. According the attached Complaint Arrest

Affidavit (Exhibit B), Perdigao was arrested by the St. Tammany Sheriff's Office at 10:10 p.m. after he stole $267.35 in items belonging to the Wal-Mart Super Center located at 880 Highway 190 North, Covington, Louisiana.

Perdigao was taken into custody and brought to the St. Tammany Parish Jail where he was booked with a violation of Louisiana Revised Statute 14.67.10 (Theft of Goods over $100.00). Defendant has had two court dates according to the St. Tammany Parish Clerks Office. (See Exhibit C). Defendant currently is scheduled for trial on December 15, 2008.

For the past eight months, Perdigao has known about these criminal charges and he knowingly and, with contempt, concealed this pertinent information from this Court, the U. S. Attorney, and Pretrial Services; all in clear violation of the conditions of his release set by this Court.

The government submits that there is overwhelming evidence that the defendant has violated the terms and conditions of his release on multiple occasions and, accordingly, this defendant should be held without bail.

Respectfully submitted,

JIM LETTEN
