NARRATIVE CONTINUATION

On Wednesday, February 27, 2008, at approximately 2210 hours, Deputy T. J. Williams was working an off duty, paid, uniformed law enforcement detail located at "Wal-Mart Super Center" - 880 Hwy. 190N - Covington, La. 70433. During that time, Dy. Williams was contacted by Wal-Mart Asset Protection Associate, Mr. Jason Pittman, who requested assistance in stopping a subject for shoplifting. Dy. Williams met Mr. Pittman and the later arrested subject, Mr. James G. Perdigao, outside the General Merchandise Entrance of said business, and the following transpired.

Mr. Pittman advised Dy. Williams that Mr. Perdigao had taken and concealed various items in Wal-Mart shopping bags, and exited the store past all points of sale without paying. Additionally, Mr. Pittman advised that Mr. Perdigao had made a fraudulent return at said store. Mr. Pittman advised he personally observed the crime, and would pursue charges on "Wal-Mart's behalf. Dy. Williams placed Mr. Perdigao under arrest, handcuffed same (checked finger spacing and double locked), and escorted him to the Loss Prevention Office in the rear of the store. Once there, Dy. Williams completed the required booking paperwork, including the "Miranda Warning", to be included with this report. A computer check revealed no outstanding warrants. Dy. Williams requested a transport unit, obtained a copy of the "Wal-Mart" Asset Protection Case Report (including a detailed list of the 43 stolen and recovered items valued at $267.35), and escorted Mr. Perdigao to the front of the store.

It should be noted that Mr. Perdigao had over $800.00 in US Currency, several credit cards, and gift cards of various amounts, in his possession at the time of his arrest. Additionally, Mr. Perdigao had numerous Wal-Mart receipts in his wallet, which he had picked up at various times from the grounds, parking lot, trash, etc. Mr. Perdigao used the receipts, and pink return stickers, in order to commit his refund fraud (For additional information on his method, see the loss prevention report completed by Mr. Pittman).

A short time latter, Transporting Dy., M. Nelson # 3112, arrived on scene. Dy. Nelson took custody of Mr. Perdigao. Dy. Nelson transported the arrested subject to the Parish Jail, where he was booked accordingly and without incident for LRS 14:67.10 (theft of goods over $100.00). A copy of the "Wal-Mart Asset Protection Report" to be included with this report. Any additional information relative to this incident will be contained in a supplemental report. No further information at this time.

On February 27, 2008 at approximately 20:30 hours I, Jason Pittman with Wal-Mart Asset Protection in the Covington, La store, observed a subject wearing a long sleeve polo shirt along with blue jeans walking in electronics with a Wal-Mart shopping bag in the top of the basket he was pushing. The bag had a rechargeable battery with a pink return sticker on it that was clearly visible at the time. The subject, later known as James Perdigao, was also carrying numerous Wal-Mart receipts in his hand while moving through electronics. The subject then stopped near the music systems area near the MP3 players and selected from the shelf a RCA Digital Music Studio after comparing a receipt in his hand to the number on the box. James then moved to the men's department where he located a belt from the shelf, matched it to a receipt, placed the belt in the buggy and then made his way to the pet department where he removed the pink sticker from the battery and placed it on the Music System. The subject then went to the service desk and made a fraudulent return for a total of $153.15 for the belt and the music system. Once the subject had the gift card in his possession he returned into the store and continued to shop for various items. After nearly an hour of selecting items such as cat food, cookies and canned goods the subject made his way to the produce area where he removed several Wal-Mart bags from his pockets and began concealing the items he had selected. once everything had been concealed James made his way to the front of the store, passed all points of sale failing to pay for any of the merchandise and exited the store through the general merchandise doors. Upon exiting I, along with Deputy TJ Williams #4214 of the STPSO, identified myself as being with Asset Protection, detained the subject, recovered the merchandise and then lead him to the back office. While in the back office all paperwork was completed including the civil statute being given to him. The gift card from the refund was also recovered and he was then charged with theft totaling $267.35. He was then released to Deputy Williams who escorted him out of the building.
