This matter being considered on the motion of the United States Attorney for an order regarding pretrial discovery and inspection, the Court so finds and orders as follows:

1. Discovery and inspection is granted to the following extent:

(a) The United States Attorney shall make available to defendant within thirty (30) days of this Order any evidence described in Rule 16(a)(1)(A), (B), (C) and (D), Fed.R.Crim.P., which the government intends to offer in evidence during its case in chief or as otherwise provided in Rule 16, and all information accumulated during investigation of this matter which constitutes Brady exculpatory material as soon as possible or as soon as discovered (with the exception that the United States Attorney is not required to produce any statements of witnesses containing possible Brady material which fall within the purview of Section 3500, Title 18, United States Code, until such time as the United States Attorney produces Rule 26.2 and Section 3500(e) statements to defendant);

(b) The United States Attorney shall provide to defendant at least five (5) calendar days prior to trial on the merits: (1) a list of prospective government witnesses expected to be used in its case in chief, (2) all statements of such witnesses as defined in Rule 26.2, Fed.R.Crim.P., and Section 3500(e), Title 18, United States Code, (except that if the defendant(s) has listed an expected government witness as an expected defense witness, then the United States

Attorney has no obligation to provide a statement of the witness until just prior to direct examination of that witness by the United States in its case in chief), (3) the general nature of any evidence of other crimes, wrongs, or acts intended to be introduced at trial pursuant to Rule 404(b), Fed.R.Evid., and (4) Giglio impeachment material of which the United States Attorney is aware; it being understood that the omission of a witness(es) from the list shall not result in excluding that witness from testifying, if the omission was not due to deliberate concealment by the government, in which event the government is required to notify defendant at the earliest opportunity of the name of the omitted witness; it being further understood that the Rule 404(b) notice may be provided during trial if the Court excuses pretrial notice on good cause shown;

2. (a) The defendant shall make available to the United States Attorney within thirty (30) days of this Order any evidence described in Rule 16(b)(1)(A) and (B), Fed.R.Crim.P., which the defendant expects to introduce into evidence during the case in chief of either the government or defendant;

(b) The defendant shall provide to the United States Attorney a list of prospective witnesses expected to be used in its case in chief, and all statements of those witnesses as that term is defined in Rule 26.2, Fed.R.Crim.P., and Section 3500(e), Title 18, United States Code, (except that if the government has listed an expected defense witness as an expected government witness, then the defendant has no obligation to provide a statement of the witness until just prior to direct examination of that witness by the defendant in its case in chief), at least five (5) calendar days prior to trial on the merits; it being understood that the omission of a witness(es) from the list shall not result in excluding that witness from testifying, if the omission was not due to deliberate concealment by the defendant, in which event the defendant is required to notify the United States Attorney at the earliest opportunity of the name of the omitted witness;

3. In response to the government's request for a protective order concerning any pretrial discovery, as provided in Rule 16(d)(1), Fed.R.Crim.P., the request is granted to the additional extent:

(a) All statements of witnesses exchanged under this order between the various parties hereto, both government and defendant, are to be held and used by the attorneys solely for the purposes of cross-examination of the various witnesses, as contemplated by Rule 26.2, Fed.R.Crim.P., and Section 3500(b) and (c), Title 18, United States Code, and such statements are not to be shown to any person, including the witnesses (except during cross-examination), except the defendant or government representative, nor copied or reproduced in any manner, and upon completion of cross-examination of the particular witness, his/her statement is to be returned forthwith to the providing counsel;

(b) Any witness appearing on the witness list of either the government or of the defendant provided under this Order shall not be interviewed by the other parties at any time subsequent to the exchange of the witness lists between the parties, excluding those witnesses which were also on the original witness list of the providing party.

(c) All written or oral information provided by the parties to each other, both government and defendant, as required by Paragraphs 1 and 2 above, are to be held and used by the attorneys solely for purposes of preparation for and conducting of the litigation herein, motions and trials; and such information is not to be given or shown to any person, nor copied or reproduced in any manner, except for the sole purposes of preparation for and conducting of examination and cross-examination of witnesses at either motions or trials.

4. The materials required to be turned over by the parties pursuant to Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall be carried out at the office of the United States Attorney, either at Jackson or Gulfport; however, in the event of failure by a defendant to comply with his/her responsibilities to produce/provide under provisions of this Order, then the United States Attorney is relieved from his duty and responsibility to produce/provide. It is understood that both parties have a continuing duty to disclose as required by Rule 16(c), Fed.R.Crim.P.

5. Should defendant object to the provisions of Paragraphs 2, 3, 4 and 6 herein, such objections shall be made in writing to this Court within thirty (30) days of this Order; in such event the government shall not be required to deliver witness statements except as specifically provided in Rule 26.2, Fed.R.Crim.P. and Section 3500, Title 18, United States Code, nor a witness list until the morning of trial on the merits.

6. Under authority of Section 3161(h)(1)(F), Title 18, United States Code (the Speedy Trial Act), a period of thirty (30) days from date of this Order is hereby excluded from the time within which trial of this case must commence, in order to permit the government and defendant a reasonable period of time to comply with paragraphs 1(a) and 2(a) of this Order, and, in connection therewith, the Court finds that the ends of justice served by the orderly turnover of evidence contemplated by this paragraph outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.

ORDERED this the 28th day Jan. ~~February~~ 2009.
