Scruggs, P.A.; Civil Action No. 251-94-582CIV

Dear Bob,

I deny the accusations in your letter dated July 27, 1994. You and Alwyn have cooked up this whole case in a desperate effort to coerce still more money out of me. Your counter-claim/cross-claim is a clear and disingenuous attempt to repudiate the agreement under which you have received largely unearned fees since late 1992. After repudiating the agreement, you now ask me to perform it.

For obvious reasons, I will not accede to your demands, I have, however deposited the amount of your claim into an interest bearing account pending a final judicial determination of entitlements.

Sincerely,

Dick
