FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF ALABAMA
SOUTHERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA)
v.)	CRIMINAL NO. 13-cr-266-WS
JAMES MICHAEL BYRD)

PLEA AGREEMENT

The defendant, JAMES MICHAEL BYRD, represented by his counsel, and the United States of America have reached a plea agreement in this case, pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the terms and conditions of which are as follows:

RIGHTS OF THE DEFENDANT

1. The defendant understands his rights as follows:
 - a. To be represented by an attorney;
 - b. To plead not guilty;
 - c. To have a trial by an impartial jury;
 - d. To confront and cross-examine witnesses and to call witnesses and produce other evidence in his defense; and
 - e. To not be compelled to incriminate himself.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS AND PLEA OF GUILTY

2. The defendant waives rights b through e, listed above, and pleads guilty to Count One of the Information, charging a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1512(b)(3), Misleading Conduct toward another person, with intent to prevent the communication to a federal law enforcement officer.

3. The defendant understands that the statements he makes under oath in the plea of guilty must be completely truthful and that he can be prosecuted for making false statements or perjury, or receive a perjury enhancement at sentencing, for any false statements he makes intentionally in this plea of guilty.
4. The defendant expects the Court to rely upon his statements here and his response to any questions that he may be asked during the guilty plea hearing.
5. The defendant is not under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or narcotics. He is certain that he is in full possession of his senses and is mentally competent to understand this Plea Agreement and the guilty plea hearing which will follow.
6. The defendant has had the benefit of legal counsel in negotiating this Plea Agreement. He has discussed the facts of the case with his attorney, and his attorney has explained to the defendant the essential legal elements of the criminal charge which has been brought against him. The defendant's attorney has also explained to the defendant his understanding of the United States' evidence and the law as it relates to the facts of his offense.
7. The defendant understands that the United States has the burden of proving each of the legal elements of the criminal charge beyond a reasonable doubt. The defendant and his counsel have discussed possible defenses to the charge. The defendant believes that his attorney has represented him faithfully, skillfully, and diligently, and he is completely satisfied with the legal advice of his attorney.
8. Defendant recognizes that pleading guilty may have consequences with respect to immigration status if he is not a citizen of the United States. Under federal law, a broad range of crimes are removable offenses, including the offense(s) to which he is pleading guilty. Removal and other immigration consequences are the subject of a separate proceeding, however, and the defendant understands that no one, including his attorney or the district court, can predict to a certainty the effect of his conviction on his immigration status. Defendant nevertheless affirms that he wants to plead guilty regardless of any immigration consequences that his plea may entail, even if the consequence is his automatic removal from the United States.

9. A separate document, entitled Factual Resume, will be submitted to the Court as evidence at the guilty plea hearing. The Factual Resume is incorporated by reference into this Plea Agreement. The defendant and the United States agree that the Factual Resume is true and correct. Alterations to the Plea Agreement or Factual Resume initialed only by the defendant and his counsel are not part of this agreement and are not agreed to by the United States.
10. This plea of guilty is freely and voluntarily made and is not the result of force, threats, promises, or representations, apart from those representations set forth in this Plea Agreement. There have been no promises from anyone as to the particular sentence that the Court will impose. The defendant is pleading guilty because he is guilty.
11. The defendant also knowingly and voluntarily waives all rights, whether asserted directly or through a representative, to receive from the United States after sentencing any further records, reports, or documents pertaining to the investigation or prosecution of this matter. This waiver includes, but is not limited to, rights under the Freedom of Information Act and the Privacy Act of 1974.

PENALTY

12. The maximum penalty the Court could impose as to Count One of the Information is:
- a. Twenty (20) years imprisonment;
 - b. A fine not to exceed $250,000;
 - c. A term of supervised release of (3) years, which would follow any term of imprisonment. If the defendant violates the conditions of supervised release, he could be imprisoned for the entire term of supervised release;
 - d. A mandatory special assessment of $100.00; and
 - e. Such restitution as may be ordered by the Court.

SENTENCING

13. The Court will impose the sentence in this case. The United States Sentencing Guidelines are advisory and do not bind the Court. The defendant has reviewed the application of the Guidelines with his attorney and understands that no one can predict with certainty what the sentencing range will be in this case until after a pre-sentence investigation has been completed and the Court has ruled on the results of that investigation. The defendant understands that at sentencing, the Court may not necessarily sentence the defendant in accordance with the Guidelines. The defendant understands that he will not be allowed to withdraw his guilty plea if the advisory guideline range is higher than expected, or if the Court departs or varies from the advisory guideline range.

14. The defendant understands that this Plea Agreement does not create any right to be sentenced in accordance with the Sentencing Guidelines, or below or within any particular guideline range, and fully understands that determination of the sentencing range or guideline level, or the actual sentence imposed, is solely the discretion of the Court.
15. The United States will provide all relevant sentencing information to the Probation Office for purposes of the pre-sentence investigation. Relevant sentencing information includes, but is not limited to, all facts and circumstances of this case and information concerning the defendant's conduct and background.
16. Both the defendant and the United States are free to allocute fully at the time of sentencing.
17. The defendant agrees to tender $100.00 to the U.S. District Court Clerk in satisfaction of the mandatory special assessment in this case. The United States reserves the right to withdraw any favorable recommendations it may agree to within this document if the defendant fails to pay the special assessment prior to or at the time of his sentencing.

RESTITUTION

18. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3556 and 3663(A), restitution is mandatory. The defendant agrees to make full restitution in an amount to be determined by the Court at sentencing.

FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

19. The Defendant expressly authorizes the U.S. Attorney's Office to obtain a credit report in order to evaluate the Defendant's ability to satisfy any financial obligation imposed by the Court. In order to facilitate the collection of financial obligations to be imposed in connection with this prosecution, the Defendant agrees to disclose fully all assets in which the Defendant has any interest or over which the Defendant exercises control, directly or indirectly, including those held by a spouse, nominee or other third party.

UNITED STATES' OBLIGATIONS

20. The United States will not bring any additional charges against the defendant related to the facts underlying the Information and will move to dismiss any remaining charges against the defendant once sentence is imposed in this case. This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Alabama and does not bind any other federal, state, or local prosecuting authorities.
21. The United States will recommend to the Court that the defendant be sentenced to six months home confinement and six months probation.

APPLICATION OF USSG § 5K1.1 AND/OR FED. R. CRIM. P. 35

22. The defendant understands and agrees that he has no right to cooperate, and that the decision whether to allow him to cooperate is reserved solely to the United States in the exercise of its discretion. If the United States agrees to allow the defendant to cooperate, and if the defendant agrees to cooperate, the following terms and conditions apply:
- a. The defendant shall fully, completely, and truthfully respond to all questions put to him by law enforcement authorities regarding the underlying facts of the offense(s) with which he is charged, as well as the underlying facts of any criminal offense(s), state or federal, of which he has information or knowledge.
 - b. The defendant acknowledges that he understands that he shall provide truthful and complete information regarding any offense about which he has knowledge or information regardless of whether law enforcement authorities question him specifically about any such offense. This provision requires the defendant to divulge all information available to him even when law enforcement authorities do not know about the defendant's involvement, knowledge or information relating to any particular offense. This requirement extends to any and all persons about whom the defendant has such knowledge or information.
 - c. The defendant agrees to cooperate completely with all law enforcement authorities in any matters to which his cooperation may be deemed relevant by any law enforcement authority. The defendant agrees to fully comply with all instructions from law enforcement authorities regarding the specific assistance he shall provide. This includes, but is not limited to, consenting to monitored and/or recorded telephone conversations, participating in undercover operations, testifying completely and truthfully before any grand jury, at any pre-trial proceeding, during any trial, and any post-trial proceeding.

- d. If the United States deems it necessary, the defendant may be required to take a polygraph examination(s) which will be administered by a government polygrapher. The defendant agrees that the results of any polygraph examination may be used by the United States in its evaluation of whether there has been substantial assistance, and are admissible at sentencing to rebut an assertion by the defendant of bad faith or unconstitutional motive on the part of the United States.
- e. The defendant agrees to turn over to the United States any and all documents, tapes and other tangible objects which are in his possession or under his control and which are relevant to his participation in and knowledge of criminal activities, regardless of whether it relates to the charged offense. This obligation is a continuing one and includes materials that the defendant may acquire, obtain or have access to after the execution of this agreement.

- f. The defendant also agrees to identify the assets of any other person which were obtained through or facilitated the defendant's illegal activities or the illegal activities of another.
- g. If the defendant provides full, complete, truthful and substantial cooperation to the United States, which results in substantial assistance to the United States in the investigation or prosecution of another criminal offense, a decision specifically reserved by the United States in the exercise of its sole discretion, then the United States agrees to move for a downward departure in accordance with Section 5K1.1 of the United States Sentencing Guidelines or Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, whichever the United States deems applicable. The United States specifically reserves the right to make the decision relating to the extent of any such departure request made under this agreement based upon its evaluation of the nature and extent of the defendant's cooperation. The defendant understands that the United States will make no representation or promise with regard to the exact amount of reduction, if any, the United States might make in the event that it determines that the defendant has provided substantial assistance. The defendant understands that a mere interview with law enforcement authorities does not constitute substantial assistance. The defendant also understands that, should he provide untruthful information to the United States at any time, or fail to disclose material facts to the United States at any time, or commits a new criminal offense, the United States will not make a motion for downward departure. If the defendant's effort to cooperate with the United States does not amount to substantial assistance as determined solely by the United States, the United States agrees to recommend that the defendant receive a sentence at the low end of the advisory guideline range.

h. The United States and the defendant agree that any breach of this agreement by the defendant, including but not limited to committing a new offense, failing to cooperate, intentionally withholding information, giving false information, committing perjury, failing to identify assets obtained by him from his illegal activities or obtained by others associated with him or of which he has knowledge, refusing to take a polygraph examination, failing a polygraph examination, or refusing to testify before the grand jury or at any judicial proceeding, would:

- (1) permit the United States to reinstate and proceed with prosecution on any other charges arising from the matters underlying the Indictment; and
- (2) permit the United States to initiate and proceed with the prosecution on any other charges arising from a breach of this agreement. The United States will not be limited, in any respect, in the use it may make against the defendant of any information provided by the defendant during his breached cooperation. Such breach will constitute a waiver of any claim the defendant could make under the United States Constitution, the Federal Rules of Evidence, the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, or any statute or case law by which the defendant seeks to suppress the use of such information or any evidence derived from such information.

- i. Nothing in this agreement shall protect the defendant in any way from prosecution for any offense committed after the date of this agreement, including perjury, false declaration, false statement, and obstruction of justice, should the defendant commit any of these offenses during his cooperation. The defendant acknowledges and agrees that the information that he discloses to the United States pursuant to this agreement may be used against him in any such prosecution.
- j. The United States and the defendant agree that the defendant will continue his cooperation even after he is sentenced in the instant matter. His failure to continue his cooperation will constitute a breach of this agreement, and the defendant agrees that under such conditions, the United States will be free to reinstate the charges and the prosecution of the charges in the Indictment, which are to be dismissed in accordance with this agreement. Under these circumstances, the defendant expressly waives any rights he may have under the statute of limitations and the speedy trial provisions.

LIMITED WAIVER OF RIGHT TO APPEAL AND WAIVER OF COLLATERAL ATTACK

23. As part of the bargained-for exchange represented in this plea agreement, and subject to the limited exceptions below, the defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives the right to file any direct appeal or any collateral attack, including a motion to vacate, set aside, or correct sentence under 28 U.S.C. § 2255. Accordingly, the defendant will not challenge his guilty plea, conviction, or sentence in any district court or appellate court proceedings.

a. EXCEPTIONS. The defendant reserves the right to timely file a direct appeal challenging:

- (1) any sentence imposed in excess of the statutory maximum;
- (2) any sentence which constitutes an upward departure or variance from the advisory guideline range.

The defendant also reserves the right to claim ineffective assistance of counsel in a direct appeal or § 2255 motion.

24. If the United States files a notice of appeal and such appeal is authorized by the Solicitor General, the defendant is released from the appellate waiver.

25. The defendant further reserves the right to timely move the district court for an amended sentence under 18 U.S.C. § 3582 in the event of a future retroactive amendment to the Sentencing Guidelines which would affect the sentence.

26. If the defendant receives a sentence within or below the advisory guideline range, this plea agreement shall serve as the defendant's express directive to defense counsel to timely file a “Notice of Non-Appeal” following sentencing, signed by the defendant.

VIOLATION OF AGREEMENT

27. The defendant understands that if he breaches any provision of this Plea Agreement, the United States will be free from any obligations imposed by this agreement, but all provisions of the agreement remain enforceable against the defendant. In the exercise of its discretion, the United States will be free to prosecute the defendant on any charges of which it has knowledge. In such event, the defendant agrees not to assert any objections to prosecution that he might have under the Sixth Amendment and/or Speedy Trial Act.
28. In addition, if the defendant is released from detention prior to sentencing, he understands that the United States will no longer be bound by this agreement if he violates any condition of his release prior to sentencing or prior to serving his sentence after it is imposed.

ENTIRETY OF AGREEMENT

29. This document is the complete statement of the agreement between the defendant and the United States and may not be altered unless done so in writing and signed by all the parties.

FACTUAL RESUME

ELEMENTS OF THE OFFENSE

JAMES MICHAEL BYRD understands that in order to prove a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1512(b)(3), as charged in Count One of the Information, the United States must prove: Count One: 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b)(3)

First: The defendant knowingly used intimidation, threatened, or corruptly persuaded another person, or attempted to do so, or engaged in misleading conduct toward another person with intent to;

Second: hinder, delay, or prevent the communication to a law enforcement officer or judge of the United States of information relating to the commission or possible commission of a Federal offense or a violation of conditions of probation, supervised release, parole, or release pending judicial proceedings.

OFFENSE CONDUCT

Defendant, JAMES MICHAEL BYRD, admits in open court and under oath that the following statement is true and correct and constitutes evidence in this case. This statement of facts is provided solely to assist the Court in determining whether a factual basis exists for Defendant's plea of guilty. The statement of facts does not contain each and every fact known to Defendant and to the United States concerning the defendant's involvement in the charges set forth in the plea Agreement.

On June 19, 2012, deputies with the Jackson County Sheriff's Department (JCSD) responded to a single-vehicle accident in Jackson County, Mississippi, in which J.M.S. was suspected of driving under the influence of alcohol. During this encounter, J.M.S. exhibited a knife and after repeatedly entering and exiting the driver's seat of a patrol car, J.M.S. stole a Jackson County Sheriff's Department (JCSD) patrol car and led JCSD deputies on a chase that began in Jackson County, Mississippi and ended in Mobile County, Alabama. JCSD deputies stopped the patrol car and ordered J.M.S. to exit the patrol car but J.M.S. refused. A JCSD deputy utilized his Taser weapon on J.M.S. J.M.S. was removed from the patrol vehicle and after a brief struggle J.M.S. was arrested. JCSD deputies then placed J.M.S.—who now was handcuffed and unresisting—in the patrol car belonging to JCSD Deputy Dustin Gregg. Soon after, Jackson County Sheriff James Michael Byrd, acting in his capacity as Sheriff, arrived on the scene. Byrd spoke angrily to J.M.S. and cursed at him. Then, while J.M.S. was standing by Deputy Gregg's patrol car, and while J.M.S. still was handcuffed and unresisting, Byrd kicked J.M.S. in the groin.

On June 25, 2012, Sheriff Byrd told JCSD Captain Michael Wright to delete from the relevant computer server dashboard camera footage depicting the chase and arrest of J.M.S. and Byrd's arrival on the scene following J.M.S.'s arrest. Byrd told Wright, "You need to get rid of this video." When Captain Wright asked Byrd, "Sheriff, are you sure you want me to delete this video?" Byrd replied in the affirmative. Following Byrd's instructions, Captain Wright deleted the dashboard camera footage from the relevant computer server.

On August 17, 2013, an article appeared in the Pascagoula Sun-Herald newspaper which detailed J.M.S.'s allegations. The article further stated that J.M.S.'s allegations were the subject of an ongoing FBI investigation, and named JCSD Captain Bruce Nevels, who had witnessed Byrd kick J.M.S. The day the article was published, Byrd approached Nevels about the article and demanded that Nevels “explain” it.

On August 19, 2013, Byrd directed Sherwood Beckham, who at the time served as an information technologist for the JCSD, to report to Byrd’s office. When Beckham arrived at Byrd’s office, Byrd said, “They ain’t gonna get shit off me!” and asked Beckham to “wipe” Byrd’s office computer hard drive, because Byrd was concerned about emails stored on Byrd’s office computer. Byrd directed Beckham to retrieve Beckham’s computer forensics tools from Beckham’s car in such a manner that no one would know what Beckham was doing. Beckham complied with the Sheriff’s order, brought his computer forensics tools to the Sheriff’s office, and “wiped” Byrd’s computer hard drive. Byrd also directed Beckham to drill a hole in the “wiped” hard drive, to ensure the data contained therein would not otherwise be recoverable. Several days later, Byrd asked Beckham whether he had “drilled” the drive as Byrd had directed. Beckham replied that he had not. Around the same time, Beckham installed a new hard drive in the Sheriff’s office computer. Byrd commented that his e-mails were still present, and began deleting the e-mails as he spoke with Beckham.

On or about August 29, 2013, Byrd arrived on the scene where Deputy Goff was responding to a call concerning an abandoned car. Referring to J.M.S., Byrd said to Goff, “Do you remember me saying anything to that guy? Kicking him or assaulting him, ‘cause I don’t.” At the time he made this statement to Goff, Byrd was aware that his kicking of J.M.S. may have violated federal law and was the subject of a federal criminal investigation. In making this statement to Goff, Byrd knowingly engaged in misleading conduct toward Goff, as Byrd then well knew that he had kicked the then-arrested and handcuffed J.M.S., and was made to Goff with the intent to hinder, delay, or prevent the communication to a federal law enforcement officer of information relating to Byrd's kicking of J.M.S., after J.M.S. had been placed under arrest and handcuffed in Mobile County.

The defendant hereby stipulates that the facts stated above are substantially correct and that the Court can use these facts in calculating the defendant's sentence. The defendant further acknowledges that these facts do not constitute all of the evidence of each and every act that the defendant may have committed.

AGREED TO AND SIGNED.
